A Jenkins Farmstead Day

a summer history camp for children

A Jenkins Farmstead Day

What was it like to grow up on a Pennsylvania farm in colonial times? Participants in the summer history camp at the Jenkins Homestead will experience firsthand the work and play activities that filled a typical day for the Jenkins children.

Campers will play games and hear stories, make colonial crafts, learn how to prepare food over an open hearth, and churn butter from fresh cream. An interpretive tour of the homestead will be included in the day's activities.

A Jenkins Farmstead Day will take place at the Jenkins Homestead on Tuesday, July 12, 9AM-3PM. The raindate is July 13. The camp is open to children who are entering 3rd through 6th grades.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED BY JUNE 15

The registration fee is $20/child. Space is limited. Registration will be accepted on a first come first served basis. Please make checks payable to Lansdale Historical Society.

Bring your own lunch and water bottle.
Juice boxes will be provided at lunchtime.
